Dear Mr. Woolfson,

Thank you for your letter of 21st January to The Princess of Wales regarding the work of your charity, Helping Our Kehillah. Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to you.

It was really thoughtful of you to take the time to write, and your generous words of support for Her Royal Highness's health were greatly appreciated. Helping Our Kehillah sounds like it makes an incredible difference to the lives of the people it supports. It is especially encouraging to hear about the help offered to families and single mothers, since the first few years of childhood are more pivotal for development and future health and happiness than any other single moment of our lifetime.

Unfortunately, The Princess is not able to send a letter of support at this time. Her Royal Highness receives many similar requests for personal messages and sadly cannot accept them due to sheer volume, no matter how worthy.

The Princess of Wales would, however, have me pass on her warmest thanks to you for writing, and her best wishes to everyone at Helping Our Kehillah.

Yours Sincerely,

Osher Woolfson, Esq.
